

Rita Kilstrom

The West Linn Public Library will feature the fiber art of Rita Kilstrom during the month of June. The exhibit will run May 30–June 29 in the Library’s Community Room which is open to the public when not in use, and always open on Sundays noon – 5:00 p.m. An artist's reception will be held on Saturday, June 5, 2:00-4:00 p.m.

Kilstrom comes from a family background of creativity: her maternal grandmother was a quilter, her father was an artist, and her mother created watercolor paintings and copper enamel jewelry. Kilstrom learned to sew in junior high and has loved textiles and stitchery ever since. She finds inspiration in the many print and hand-dyed fabrics that are available today. She enjoys using the unique prints to guide the elements of each project, from the color and value choices, to textures and shapes. She has won numerous awards and when she is not creating her art, she is teaching, speaking, and exhibiting.
